geoSMART Planet & You!
resources + infrastructure

Technological advancements are turning the world into an intelligent, instrumented and interconnected place. With these changes come amazing opportunities for society - for every business, institution and individual. Forward-thinking leaders in business, government and civil society around the world are capturing the potential of smarter systems to achieve economic growth, near-term efficiency, sustainable development and societal progress. The theme will address the ways geospatial technology extends the ability to harness data that gives these leaders their competitive advantage in the era of "smart" to overcome the complexity of the challenges that the world is facing. Deliberations at the conference this year will delve into the various innovative and integrative systems supported by geospatial technologies for enabling efficient use of resources, organised development of infrastructure and last but not least, enabling the common man to live a smart and easy life.
